

PLATINUM TORCH NATIONAL SERVICE HONORARY SEED GRANT APPLICATION INFORMATION

The Platinum Torch National Seed Grant Program was established in order to make grants available to Chapters to fund innovative and intrepid programs to foster and advance volunteerism among students. These can include such projects as sponsoring a Volunteer Day at your school, a Day of Volunteerism in your community, etc.

Chapters and their projects that meet the eligibility requirements are invited to complete the Full Application. The Approval Committee, consisting of Platinum Torch staff and the Board of Directors, will review the Full Applications. Applications selected by the Approval Committee will be awarded Platinum Torch National Seed Grants.

Applications are to be sent to:

Platinum Torch National Seed Grant Program
297 Route 72 West, Suite #113
Manahawkin, NJ 08050-2890

- Be sure to answer all the questions and return pages 1-3 of the application. All materials requested must be submitted together.
- Submit the budget for your project.
- Please use the U.S. Postal Service to deliver the application. E-mailed applications will not be accepted.
- The Platinum Torch National Service Honorary reserves the right to make the ultimate selection for the Seed Grant Program.
- Only Chapters of the Platinum Torch National Service Honorary are eligible for the Seed Grant Program.
- At the completion of the project, you are encouraged to submit photos and a write-up of the project for inclusion on the e-newsletter.
